They spent vesterday in Ogden and were shown through the sugar factory there by Superincedont Eccles. The Lein factory will also be inspected and the matter of beet-raising fooked into.

The Grand Junction district is particularly well suited for beet-raising sand a sugar factory is among the probabilities of the near future. Some of the farmers in the valley have made experiments with good results, and should a factory be located there, it is many the superior quality of its fruit, especially peaches.

Beck and Was Sold On Foreclosure

Judge W. S. Arnold, formerly manager of the Keeley institute of this city, but now a practicing attorney, made Zion's Savings Bank & Trust company pay 340,000 for the Ees Hive House, which was sold by Deputy Sherir Montgomery to satisfy a Judgment of the clock place at the west front door of the city and county building, and the only bidders were Judge Arnold and George M. Cannon, setting cashier for the bank M. Cannon better until he had reached the price of 128,000. Mr. Montgomery asked Judge Arnold who he was representing, and received a prompt prily, "Myself, sir," The property was sold to satisfy a judgment of 325,000 obtained by the bank.

corrolorated the statements she made and then Mr. Blair formulated what arknown to the legal fraternity as a few "Indings of flact," which were passed over to the court. That official added some "conclusions of law" and then, after the words: "It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff herein do have, etc., etc.," wrote in large, legible characters the words: "Ogden Hiles, Judge".

Mrs. Walker was restored to a state of simple blessedness and her husband taxed for costs, etc.

Then the court went to disner.

Of course one reporter got the story, else it would not have been printed.

This is the second matrimonial venture Mrs. Walker has indulged in. The first one was severed by the killing of her husband Henry Nugent in Park City, several years ago, by a man who claimed he had been given the worst of it in a fare game. She has lived in this city more or less ever since. She is a very attractive looking lady and has a great many friends.

Walker is train dispatcher for the Oregon Short Line and is a very popular man among those with whom he is acquainted. The cause of his decrease.
